From The Principal's Desk

Dear Parents,

Every child is an institution in themselves, unique, invaluable, and full of promise. Like malleable clay, a child is a divine gift entrusted to us to shape and nurture. It is, therefore, our profound responsibility to guide and refine these young minds, helping them discover their true potential and purpose.

This sacred duty calls for the harmonious blending of the Head, Heart, and Hand. When intellect, empathy, and action work together, they illuminate each child's path to self-realization. With love and dedication, this labour of love leads to Peace, Progress, and Prosperity for individuals and for society at large. It is a reminder of the vital role we play in shaping innocent souls into confident, compassionate, and capable individuals.

We are delighted to bring you another edition of our E-Newsletter, filled with stories of our children's growth and achievements. We sincerely thank you for your constant support, trust, and cooperation in the education of your children. Please take a few moments to scroll through the pages and share in the joy of their learning journey.

A heartfelt thank you to Mrs. Meesha and Honhaar for beautifully compiling all the vibrant activities from July to September into this engaging E-Newsletter. Your creativity, dedication, and attention to detail have truly captured the spirit and life of our school. This thoughtful effort will surely bring joy and pride to our parents as they glimpse the wonderful experiences their children are part of.

Thank you

God bless

Sr Ophelia Lobo

Principal

Words Of Wisdom

Dear Parents, Teachers, and Little Learners,

It gives me immense joy to present this edition of our Kindergarten E-magazine - a celebration of curiosity, creativity, and the boundless energy that fills our school every day. Each giggle, each drawing, and every small achievement reflects the magic of early learning and the dedication of our teachers and families.

At this tender age, children learn best through play, exploration, and love. Our aim is to nurture every child's natural wonder and confidence, helping them take their first joyful steps into learning. The pages that follow capture not only their artistic talents but also their imagination, kindness, and dreams.

I extend heartfelt appreciation to our teachers for their commitment and to our parents for their constant support. Together, we build a foundation of learning that will last a lifetime. Let us continue to inspire our young learners to dream big, stay curious, and spread kindness wherever they go.

Sr Helima

KG Headmistress

Words Of Wisdom

"Tell me, I forget, teach me I remember, involve me and I learn."

- Benjamin Franklin

Every day in school is adventure for children. When they learn, play & explore they discover new things in exciting ways. Learning is not just about books when they move, create and play their minds grow stronger & heart happier.

Active learning takes place in primary classes. We try to engage children in various activities such as art, craft, dramatics, public speaking and storytelling, etc.. Every activity helps them to grow stronger, smarter and kinder. Outdoor activities promote team spirit, sharing, confidence and social development.

Children learn by integrating play with learning. The teachers and parents help them to build a strong foundation for life long. So let us provide a better atmosphere to grow in every aspect.

Today's Children , Tomorrow's Citizens.

Sr Elsie

Primary Headmistress

Message From The Editor

Dear Readers,

Welcome to a brand-new edition of Prism!

As we turn another page in our school's journey, this volume captures the energy, resilience, and brilliance that define every Josephite.

At St Joseph's Convent School, Bathinda, we nurture minds that question, hearts that care, and hands that build. Education, for us, is not only about mastering subjects - it is about discovering one's voice, values, and vision in an ever-evolving world.

The months covered in this issue stand as a testimony to unwavering effort and innovation. Whether in academics, arts, or service, our students have shown that excellence is not achieved by chance but through consistent dedication and belief in oneself.

This edition of Prism shines because of the collaboration between teachers, students, and the guiding light of our respected Principal, Sr Ophilia. Her presence continues to inspire us to dream higher and work harder.

May this newsletter remind us all that growth happens every time we step out of our comfort zone - and that every Josephite carries within them the spark to light up the world.

Warm regards,

Honhaar Sidhu

GRANDPARENTS' DAY

In every child's life, grandparents represent a cornerstone of love and wisdom. A delightful and heartwarming 'Grandparents' Day' was celebrated, filled with joy. The grandchildren's energetic performances and innocent comments brought laughter, smiles, and even a few tears of happiness to their grandparents. The event was truly unforgettable, as the grandparents' presence infused the campus with warmth and affection.

FLAG HOISTING

The school campus came alive on 15 August as the students and the faculty members gathered to mark the Nation's Independence Day with pride and reverence. Melodious songs stirred the audience's emotions, reflecting the spirit of freedom. The highlight of the event was the flag hoisting ceremony, led by the Principal, followed by the soulful singing of the National Anthem and patriotic songs. The moment filled everyone with a renewed sense of unity and belonging. Inspirational speeches were delivered by Sr Grace Maria and Sr Ophilia and two faculty members, each emphasising the value of safeguarding the hard-earned liberty of the nation.

TEACHERS' DAY

The school celebrated the much awaited Teachers' Day. The program began with a prayer and lamp lighting ceremony, followed by cultural performances and speeches dedicated to teachers. Students expressed gratitude through planters and small gestures of appreciation. The school Principal Sr Ophilia, addressed the students, highlighting the vital role of teachers in shaping character and future. The event concluded with a renewed sense of respect and admiration for the mentors.

BAGLESS DAYS

Learning Beyond the Classroom Walls

JULY

For little LKG students, it was a delightful Bagless Day! The children were entertained and involved in a variety of engaging activities, such as the "Move the Cup" race, "Put the Ball in the Box," and "Sorting Objects with Letters A to T." The day was filled with fun, education, and plenty of laughter.

A Bagless Day was organised for students of classes II and III to alleviate the routine nature of traditional classroom teaching. This initiative aimed to foster practical experiences, creativity, and hands-on activities. The learning experiences of the pupils were enriched through a diverse range of indoor and outdoor activities.

Students in Class I enjoyed a fantastic time celebrating Bagless Day, which was packed with engaging and entertaining activities. They also marked International Tiger Day, observed globally on July 29 each year. With creativity and enthusiasm, they crafted beautiful Friendship Day cards for their friends, conveying their love and affection.

The UKG students joyfully marked Bagless Day, starting the event with an energizing warm-up aimed at invigorating both their bodies and minds. The children eagerly took part in a variety of enjoyable games that filled the day with excitement and happiness. They also had a creative time using clay to make different items, which helped to enhance their fine motor skills. All in all, it was a delightful, engaging, and educational experience.

AUGUST

To provide a delightful break from books, Bagless Day was organised for Class IV. The day was packed with engaging activities, including outdoor sports, learning to tie shoelaces, and participating in roleplay. The children expressed patriotism by colouring the National Flag and Emblem. They also enjoyed playing games and watching a movie together, creating an unforgettable experience.

Focusing on the significance of independence and instilling patriotic values in our young learners, a special Bagless Day was organised for classes UKG and I. The children thoroughly enjoyed crafting tricolour artworks through cutting and pasting, engaging in fun games, and expressing their love for the country by singing and dancing to patriotic songs.

SPARKLING SMILES

Dental Care Sessions

KG BLOCK

A Dental Orientation Program and Oral Check-up was held for Class I students and was led by the highly skilled dental specialists, Dr Sachin Garg and Dr Neha.
